

This Song Sounds Like Another Song

Intro (bass voice)

Intro (bass voice)

Chorus

Chorus

This song sounds like an-oth-er song, the o - ther song this song sounds like sounds like an - o - ther song too. That song that sounds like the o - ther song sounds like an - o - ther one and that one sounds like an-o-ther song too. so we

Verse 1

Verse 1

went in search of the ver - y first song, yes the ver-y first song where they all come from, and a wise old wo-man on a cir-cu-lar stone with a bil - low - ing cape and a myst - i - cal bone sang:

Chorus (Wise Old Woman)

20 A D G C G

Your song that sounds like an-oth er song,(and that song sounds like an-o-thersong

22 A D G

too) all came from the ver - y first song, if you'll know where they're from you must

24 C G C A D G C G C

follow the tunes

and we

28 A verse 2 D G C G

came to the wood of a thou-sand songs where e-ver-y song blend-ed in-to one big song and there were the tunes, they were trapped in the leaves, they were

30 A D

31 G A Am D

cap-tured by the e - vil trees, sing ing: The trees have caught us they have

33 Am D G Am D

cap-tured us and will not let us go.

They want to own us but a

37 Am D G

tune in cap - ti - vi - ty can no grow

so we

40 Am D G Am

fought the trees 'til they let them go for a tune in a cage it can-not grow and they

42 Am D G Em

 said as they stood before us that it's been a long time since they heard the chorus, so:

44 A Chorus D G

 This song sounds like another song, the other song this song

46 C G G A D

 sounds like sounds like another song too. That song that sounds like the other song sounds like another one and that one sounds like another song too.

48 G C G G A D

51 G C G C A D G C G C

 so we

56 A D

 followed them fast and we followed them long 'til we

57 G Em A D

 sped right past the very first song and we came to the very first note and it went

59 G A D

 'Om' so we turned around and we headed straight back. one

61 G C G A D

 note became 2 then 3 then 4, then 5, 6, seven, 8, 9 or more 'til we were right back where we started from, and the wise old woman threw off her cape, she was an

63 G A A D
